PRESS RELEASE

PECB DACH signs a partnership agreement with Maxpert GmbH

(14.06.2017) – PECB DACH is pleased to announce the establishment of a new partnership agreement Maxpert GmbH. This step will enable the distribution of PECB training courses in Germany, and will ensure that the respective companies will give their contribution based in their expertise in offering and organizing PECB ISO courses.

“We are very excited for this agreement, and we have always welcomed partnership opportunities with such companies that are consistent with and appropriate to our mission,” said Faton Aliu, President and CEO of PECB DACH. He added that Maxpert GmbH has proved a great success in IT related trainings: “Both PECB DACH and Maxpert GmbH have proved a great success, and that is a very promising sign for both parties. The past years have witnessed tremendous growth in our partnership program, and initiatives aimed specifically at developing and sustaining intentional partnerships have been an important factor to our success. We both have great teams of professionals, and resources that will be a great support to this partnership,” concluded Aliu.

PARTNER’S PART, Mr. Hartmut Stilp, CEO, Maxpert GmbH

“After being 18 years in education and training business we are very proud to become a member of the worldwide PECB network,” said Hartmut Stilp, Founder and CEO of Maxpert. “The huge portfolio of worldwide accepted standards for certification for persons and management systems will help us to support our clients in demonstrating their commitment to international standards as well as they continuously improve their capabilities of serving their customers.” Maxpert itself is an ISO29990 certified education and training provider working with Fortune1000 companies. “As our customers are forced to improve their global competitive position permanently it's important for us to demonstrate our support in partnering with world class partners. And that's what we found with PECB.”
